

World War I Centennial

Voices from the Home: Stories of the Great War from Normal, Illinois

*Saturday, September 15
Tours at 10 AM & 2 PM*

A tour of sites related to World War I on the grounds of the former Illinois Soldiers' Orphans' Home in Normal, Illinois. This tour, created by Ruth Cobb, highlights the physical spaces on the grounds and offers some experiences of those whose lives were entwined with this place as the world went to war. This event is part of our World War I Centennial.
